sep 28-d1y SOUTHERN PROTECTION INSURANCE COMPANY,

ALEXANDRIA, VIRGINIA. CAPITAL OVER 350,000 DOLLARS, AND CONSTANTLY INCREASING. The Charter of this Company offers more favorable advantages to the farmer and others, than any Company chartered in the State, by insuring with or without a premium note. If the applicant prefer, he can pay the full amount of the premium in each, or by effecting a cash insurance for two years, the insured saves one-eighta of the amount he would otherwise have to pay; or by becoming a mber, and giving a small premium note, the insured saves nearly one-half of the amount charged by Stock Companies, when insuring from year to year. This is the advantage resulting from the combination of the CASH AND MUTUAL PRINCIPLE. This Company commenced issuing Policies against loss or damage by fire, on the 13th day of March, 1854, since which time over seven thousand seven hundred persons have insured and become members of the Company, and over seventy thou-sand dellars have been paid for losses. Having increased our business during the past year, we feel grateful for the liberal patronage bestowed upon the Company thus far, and for its flattering prospects of future usefulness. The Directors hope and believe, that, by prudence, caution, and a rigid system of economy, they will establish for this Company a reputation for cheapness and safety not surpassed by any Company in the U. States. All differences in settlement of losses, may be determined by three disinterested arbitrators of the County where such loss happened, to be mutually chosen by the insured and the Company. DIRECTORS: James T. Close. H. W. Thomas. Thomas T. Hill, T. B. Robertson, Dr. R. H. Stabler. R. H. Carter, Wm. Wright, Christopher Neale, R. F. Lester, P. D. Lipscomb, Ben. F. Nalle, Siles Biglow. George E. French, W. M. Turner.

COMMUNICATED. LINES

Inscribed to my esteemed friend P., of Alexandria . Cassell's Illustrated Family Bible, part 8, now Let demagogues boast of their arduous toils, As freedom's especial defenders; And piously prate—as they grapple the spoils— Of all others, as being pretenders. But, be it the aims of the wise and the good,

MISCELLANEOUS READING.

Whate'er their condition or station; To seek for that ground where our forefathers stood, And strike for the good of the nation. The platforms erected by partizan schemes, Are often prepared to deceive us; As visions of bliss that attend on our dreams, With waking realities leave us;

For on the same plank it is no novel sight, To witness all shades and conditions; Eac's claiming his own understanding as right, While all seek to keep their positions. The North, with a haughty, imperial air, Talks boldly of non-intervention; The South, with a firmness andaunted, declare

While yet the same banner waves o'er them : Each fearing the other may strike from his band, The golden rewards set before them. And soon they will gather again to discuss The various projects invented; And raise just as great agitation and fuss, As ever before were presented;

'Tis folly to hope to remove it, And subsequent action will prove it. Another delectable clique has been found, Though not quite so hard on the "trigger," Who think all political platforms unsound, Unless there's a plank for each "nigger". With champions marshalled and fierce for the fray,

Their traitorous plans are before us; And dark with misfortune will be the sad day, If e'er their black flag shall wave o'er us! But there is a star blazing out through the gloom, Despite all this angry commotion; Whose radiant beams with effulgence illume, The track o'er this storm-girdled ocean. And as its pure light greets the flag of the free, Let patriots meet in communion :

Resolving henceforth that their motto shall be-Our God! Our Homes! and the Union! The old Ship of State then shall pleasantly ride, Through every perplexing distraction, Well manned and prepared to resist every tide, Excited by each rival faction.

For when her brave seamen shall list to the Bell, Where Ever-ett's tones are resounding, The "look out" responsive, shall utter All's Well" "With peace and contentment abounding." Petersburg, May 28, 1860. CITY HOTEL,
